DONBOSCODELHI-ICON 24, 1st INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON "YOUTH IMPOWERMENT THROUGH SKILL ACQUISITION (YETSA): OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES FOR VIKSIT BHARAT".

Call for Papers | DONBOSCODELHI-ICON24

Dear Madam/Sir,

Greetings from Don Bosco Institute of Technology!

The Don Bosco Society, also known as the Salesians of Don Bosco, was founded in 1859 by St. John Bosco, who sought to educate and help homeless and orphaned child laborers in Turin, Italy. Today, the society has over 32,000 members working in 134 countries, offering educational and social services through schools, colleges, technical institutes, and youth centre. In India, the Salesians of Don Bosco have been operating since 1906 and offer services through 1 university, 48 colleges, 138 technical institutes, and 264 academic schools. The government recognizes the Salesians as the largest non-governmental provider of technical education in India.

Don Bosco Institute of Technology (DBIT) (A Unit of Don Bosco Group of Educators), Okhla is situated adjacent to Sukhdev Vihar Metro Station, South Delhi, 110 025. The college is affiliated with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Dwarka, New Delhi, and is among the best institutes for BCA, BBA & B. Com (Hons.) in Delhi NCR. The first care of the management is to give Higher Education to the youth in an atmosphere of peace, justice, and social responsibility. Here, first-rate infrastructure with strong academic facilities is provided to render a dynamic grounding for success.

DONBOSCODELHI-ICON24, 1st International Conference On "Youth Empowerment Through Skill Acquisition (YETSA): Opportunities and Challenges for Viksit Bharat" organized by DBIT, New Delhi. The conference aims to bring together leading experts and professionals from various disciplines to discuss and explore the potential of the Viksit Bharat initiative.

The conference will encompass various aspects of development, including economic growth, social progress, environmental sustainability, and good governance. Realizing this vision demands unwavering dedication, a firm belief in India's destiny, and a profound recognition of the vast potential talent and capabilities of its people, particularly the youth. Viksit Bharat envisions a society with the skills, knowledge, values, and attitudes necessary for responsible citizenship, sustainable living, and national development, and a globally conscious community. This invitation comes with a brochure attached for your reference. The Conference invites submissions of high-quality research papers on the innovative use of technology, management and commerce, media and social science and to benefit organizations and individuals. Submissions can be made before the deadline through mail dbit.conference@gmail.com

We, the Conference Coordinators take pride in extending a cordial invitation to you and your colleagues to submit and present manuscripts as per sub-themes of the conference. Original research papers are invited for presentation from Industrialists, Academicians, Research Scholars, students and Experts.
